Chris Dixon

Sadly, Chris Dixon who voluntarily maintained our gardens at church died suddenly Friday 27th August 2021. We knew Chris had heart problems, still his death came unexpectedly.

Chris spent many hours lovingly caring for the garden areas at Southside. Throughout the lockdown, Chris was often our sole visible presence at Southside. It was reassuring to know that while we were not able to use the church or meet each other Chris' presence demonstrated to those walking by we were still here. Sometimes I would walk by early in the morning and see Chris working away on the gardens and say hello. Although I am not a gardener myself it was comforting to see Chris taking care of the gardens while we had so many restrictions on our lives. And we will also miss Chris' regular articles in the newsletter.

God bless you Chris and Thank you for everything.
